PennDOT Research Implementation Activities

PennDOT has dedicated specific funds to support the communication and implementation of research results across PennDOT, local governments, and other state Departments of Transportation through training and technical assistance activities. Through this RFP, PennDOT is seeking a qualified Offeror to help support the implementation efforts of not only the PennDOT Research Program, but also the identified innovations and best practices as developed by the PennDOT Engineering District Offices.

Expected Research Completion Date: February 2013